Cuban Patriots in New York.

We are perfectly willing to fight for Cuban freedom if the Cubans will only all go there and live after it is achieved for them. But we are sincerely tired of hearing the blatant din of these piping freedom-shriekers from the sweet security of their lairs in by-lanes and back alleys. If they would only seize a musket and go gunning after Spaniards in this city, we might work up a little respect for their courage while deprecating assassination. But they only assassinate their allies, as they did the two unfortunate Domincans who came from a sister isle to aid with their experienced valor the cause of the Cuban patriots. In the face of this and similar incidents, our sympathetic feelings are harried by the most frightful stories of Spanish ferocity and cruelty toward the insurgents. Yet, only a month since, orders were received from the home government by the Captain General, to be especially careful and considerate in his treatment of Cuban prisoners, that no stain of unnecessary bloodshed might attach to the skirts of the Cortes and its generals. Such was the tenor of the dispatch, as we remember it, and it is reported to have been at the solicitation of General Prim.

There are enough Cubans in this city to form a full regiment. If they will consent to tear themselves from the fascinations of fancy fairs, French ballet girls, and New York barber shops, we will donate them a regimental standard, bearing upon its folds the cigarette rampant and a bunch of bananas in the background. They may thus go into battle under the cherished emblems of their darling vice and their favorite fruit, which seems to be about the only inspirations their minds are capable of receiving.—New York Spirit of the Times.

Greenwich Hospital.

Greenwich Hospital, England, has ceased to be the national rendezvous for the worn-out and disabled seamen of the British Navy. In the future, the pensioners will receive a periodical sum of money, and be allowed to reside where they please. Greenwich Hospital it is stated, has long since ceased to be an asylum for sailors, and the Board of Governors, with salaries of $25,000 each, is composed of political favorites. While the wounded and disabled sailors were obliged to remain satisfied with a miserable starvation allowance, the dispensers of the bounty were living in luxury. This unjust system of management has brought Greenwich Hospital into disrepute, and the forced seperation of the inmates from their families and the scanty diet has reduced the number of pensioners. In 1848 there were eleven hundred vacancies in the hospital, and about the same number of disabled seamen were receiving parish relief in all parts of England. Within the last twenty years, the number of pensioners in the hospital has been still more reduced, and at present there are only thirty-one inmates, nearly all bed-ridden, and the rest without any known relatives. These are to be accommodated in a detached establishment, and the main buildings are to be devoted as offices for the Board of Admiralty. By this plan at least $500,000 per annum will be saved and appropriated for out-pensions. Greenwich Hospital was founded in 1694 by William and Mary, in memory of the naval victroy off Cape La Hogue. The orignal endowment to $750,000 a year, and was to be used for the relief of seamen, their wives, widows and children.

MR. BONNER has offered a tempting prize to the owners of fast horseflesh, and, as a matter of course, any number of people are after the one hundred thousand dollars. But one, however, can secure the prize, and who the lucky one will be it is beyond our power to even guess. The conditions under which a horse may trot are plain, and Mr. Bonner is not in the least particular whether or not he is sound in wind and limb; all he asks is that he shall have the necessary speed. To a gentleman who wrote to Mr. B. as to whether soundness or age was [illegible]erned in the conditions of the $100,[illegible] premium, the owner of Dexter replied:

"I have no conditions of the kind to interpose. I throw the door wide open. Of course I should prefer a young and sound horse like Dexter, but I shall not make it a barrier against any horse undertaking to perform the feat, whether he be young or old, sound or unsound, lame, or free from lameness; whether he have one spavin or two, three ringbones or four; be blind of one eye or both, broken-winded or foundered, so long as he performs the feat of starting as Dexter started from my stable in Twenty-seventh street, near Ninth avenue, at one o'clock P. M., and trotting during the same afternoon on Prospect Park, as Dexter trotted, a mile in 2:21¼, to a road wagon and driver weighing 318 pounds. There must be no running or jumping—every inch of the mile must be trotted as Dexter trotted it, without a single skip or jump; and I must have the privilege of witnessing and timing the trial, and taking one or two friends with me. The owner of the horse can also have one or two friends present; but, under no circumstances, will I be concerned, directly or indirectly, in a public or advertised trial, where money is received at the entrance-gate, or opportunity is given for betting.

MAINE PEOPLE are talking about raising money for a statue of William Pitt Fessenden, its late distinguished Senator. No statue of a public man has ever been erected in the State, and it has but a single monument, that to the memory of the late Governor King, in front of the capitol at Augusta.

FRANCE.

PARIS, October 22.—It is asserted that a number of deputies propose to introduce a law at the next session of the Corps Legislatif to annul the decree of 1852, confiscating the property of the Orleans Princes.

The Patrie reports that the ultra radicals are visiting the workshops and urging the men to take part in the demonstration of the 26th inst.

The Presse says the Revolutionary Committee of Paris, have warned the workingmen in the province, that on the 25th inst there will be a general uprising in the city of Paris. The Radical journals do not approve of the proposed demonstration.

It is rumored that Lteudra Rolin, Felix Piat, Victor Hugo, Louis Blanc, and other extreme Radicals will come forward as candidates for the Corps Legislatif in the supplementary elections soon to be held in Paris.

A duel was fought to-day between Count De Beaumont and Duke De Fitz James. The latter is dangerously wounded.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, October 22.—The Standard referring to the action of the United States in preventing the departure of the fillibustering expeditions for Cuba, argues that however excellent the conduct of the Americans may be in detaining the steamer Hornet, it cannot be an example of the future, still less a cause of reproach of the past. The whole basis on which the case of the Alabama rests, is that she was not such a vessel as the Hornet. We could not have proceeded against her as the Americans have against the Cuba.

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 22.—The Press strongly urge the immediate election of a King, and suggests the elevation of Espartes to the throne for life, and the designation of the Duke Genoa as his sussessor.

In the Cortes the question of ordering an election for deputies to supply the places of those who joined the insurgents is now under consideration.

The Brooks' Case—An Absent Witness—National, State and City Authorities in Search of the Delinquent.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, October 23.—High Constable Clark has been removed by Mayor Fox. He has been connected with the police fifteen years.

The Brooks' case was resumed this morning. Mr. Brooks testified to the fact of the assault. He recognized Morrow as being in Keenan's store previous to the assault, and believed James Dougherty to be the man he saw struggling to get into the carriage door when he reached it in pursuit of his assailants. On account of the disappearance of a witness for the prosecution, the Court adjourned till to-morrow.

Judge Ludlow invited the efforts of the United State authorities, the State and city officers to endeavor to find this witness, and said he would exhaust the power of the Court in the search, and if the witness was in New Jersey he would request the the Governor of that State to deliver him to the Court.

The Tobacco Stamp Counterfeiters—More Arrests—Parties Held in $10,000 Bail Each.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

RICHMOND, October 22.—The case of parties charged with selling counterfeit tobacco revenue stamps promises to lead to important disclosures. Two more arrests have been made in connection with it, one of them being Charles Jackson, a tobacco manufacturer of Petersburg, who is charged with furnishing a genuine stamp to make the counterfeits by. Thos. W. Roche and Frederick Bannache were before the United States Commissioner to-day, and held for trial. The U. S. District Attorney, in urging that heavy bail be required, said that this was part of a wealthy gang, the principals of which would take them out of jail if $20,000 had to be forfeited to do it. The Commissioner fixed the bail at $10,000 each, and Bandache gave it. The factory of Bannache was seized to-day for violation of the revenue laws. The other parties have been bailed to appear on Wednesday. The case excited much interest from the fact that all the parties are well known as former revenue officials here.

Daring and Successful Frauds.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW ORLEANS, October 21.—Judge Abel to-day called the Grand Jury together and delivered his charge to them, urging them to stop, if possible, one of the most daring and successful frauds yet perpetrated upon the State Treasurer, and this accomplished by wholesale perjury, subornation of perjury, and it is believed by the complicity of officials. He alluded to the false, corrupt and fraudulent obtaining of warrants upon the State Treasurer by virtue of the act of General Assembly of 1868, for the relief of the veterans who served under Jackson in the battle of New Orleans.

—The delegates to the Conductors' Convention at Columbus Ohio arrived in Louisville at six o'clock last evening by a special train and attended the performance at the Opera House.

Railroad Consolidation—No Indictments Against Gold Speculators—General Butterfield Demands a Searching Investigation—Council Of Evangelical Churches—Evangelical Alliance—The Machinists' Strike Continues—Ten Inches of Snow at Leyden, N. Y.—A Cuban Stabs His Mistress and then Tries to Shoot Himself.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22, 1869.

Mr. Dunlevy, of Chicago, now in this city, is making public a statement that in sixty days the New York Central, the Hudson, Lake Shore, Northwestern, St. Paul and Rock Island roads will be one line of railway on a basis of eight per cent., not earnings. This consolidation line will lease perpetually the Harlem and Erie roads, the Erie at seven per cent. on one million dollars, and the Harlem at eight per cent. on fifteen million dollars. The Erie's guage will be narrowed at once to the guage of the other lines, her connections also. The Atlantic and Great Western and the Ohio and Mississippi and New York Central, will be put in this consolidation at $240, Hudson $200, Lake Shore at $125, Rock Island at $185, Northwestern at par and St. Paul at par.

The Congressional Committee to take testimony relative to the outrages on American citizens in Paraguay, commenced its session here to-day.

The Grand Jury this morning presented a batch of indictments to Judge Ingraham. The cases were of an ordinary character. No indictments againt Corbin or any of the gold speculators have been returned.

The Commercial says: Gen. Butterfield, in a letter to Secretary Boutwell, indignantly denies the assertions regarding his association with the schemes of the gold ring; repudiates the idea that he has been in any way identified with it, and requests a full and searching official investigation.

The Council of the Evangelical Churches met again to-day. After much discussion, resolutions were adopted favoring a permanent Evangelical council, to meet yearly, to the end that an alliance of the Evangelical bodies can be consummated, and the dissemination of the teachings of the Gospel increased. Henry Ward Beecher made the principal address.

Prof. Schaff, of this city, returned this morning from Europe on the steamer Rhine, having finished his mission in behalf of the General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance, which is to be held here during autumn of next year. Dr. Schaff has received the promise of personal attendance and co-operation from the most distinguished divines of all denominations in Great Britain and the Continent.

The strike among the machinists on the Erie roilroad continues.

Ten inches of snow are stated to have fallen at Leyden, Lewis county, yesterday.

This evening, at a house of ill fame in Crosby street, Henry Vosquex, a Cuban, stabbed his mistress, Josephine Woods, inflicting a dangerous wound, and then attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself. He was arrested. His wounds are not fatal.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of Hugh McMahon, killed last week on the New Jersey Railroad, at Waverly, censures Parker, conductor, for ordering deceased off one train while another train was passing, whereby he came to his death. The railroad company is also censured for permitting its agents to force passengers from a train on account of a dispute concerning fares.

TENNESSEE.

The United States Senatorship—Cooper Elected.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NASHVILLE, October 22.—The opposition concentrated on Henry Cooper today, and he was elected Senator on the first ballot, as follows: Cooper, 55; Johnson, 51. Cooper is a gentleman of fine ability, and has been a consistent Union man all the time.

The election gives satisfaction to all but Johnson's most ardent friends. Probably a better selection could not have been made. Mr. Cooper is one of the ablest lawyers in Tennessee. He was was one of the Military Governors; Johnson's appointee to the Judiciary; was commended for his integrity as an officer by Governor Brownlow, in a message to the Legislature. He gave a decision in the Sherbrook-Kedley case, now pending in the United States Supreme Court, that the franchise law is unconstitutional. On retiring from the bench, he became Professor in the Lebanon Law School.

Resigning that position he removed to Nashville, and is now Senator from Davidson county. To show the estimation he is held in by all parties, it may be noted that all the Radicals, with one exception, voted for him. The election throws the last shovel of earth on repudiation in Tennessee.

An Exciting Scene in Court—Armed Mob in Florida—Gen. J. Bowman Supervisor of the Western District of Pennsylvania—Custom Receipts—Rumor Contradicted—The Virginia U. S. Senators Laboring Under Disabilities.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22, 1869.

EXCITING SCENE IN THE COURT ROOM.

There was a scene of much interest and alarm in the Supreme Court room this afternoon. Mr. Phillips had opened the argument in a case in which Thos. Ewing, Sr., had been counsel for twenty-five years, and was followed by Mr. Carlisle. Mr. Ewing had listened with more than usual attention to Mr. Phillips, and seemed to be much excited by that gentleman's argument, and Mr. Ewing, in reply to Mr. Phillips, spoke with more energy than he had displayed for years. After speaking twenty minutes, he complained of indisposition, and asked permission, which was promptly granted, to sit while continuing his argument. He attempted to proceed with it, but fell from his chair unconscious. Court instantly adjourned. The officers of the Court and counsellors present hurried to his side, and the Judges soon approached with marked anxiety, to ascertain his condition. Cushions were quickly brought from the benches, of which a bed was made for him on the floor. In the course of fifteen minutes his consciousness returned, when he was removed to the room of the Clerk of Court. Physicians were summoned, who pronounced the ailment to be exhaustion of vigor of the heart. Two or three hours passed before that organ fully resumed its functions. Meantime the members of his family and other relatives were apprised of his critical condition, among them his two sons Thomas and Charles and his daughter and Gen. Sherman, his son in law. His physician, Dr. Miller, to-night pronounced him in improved condition, and says he will recover. He still lies at the Capital. Judge Ewing will be eighty years of age next December.

PORTIONS OF FLORIDA RULED BY MOB LAW.

General Kryganowski, Supervisor of Georgia and Florida, reports under date of October 12th, that Jackson and Washington counties, in Florida, are under control of an armed mob, which has risen to prevent the execution of the revenue laws. The leader of this mob is one James P. Coker, who is represented to be a wealthy and influential man. He has threatened Assistant Assessor Low, of Marina, with personal violence, and has challenged him to fight, and that officer writes that the supervisor that he can only canvass his district at the hazard of his life. Assessor Wilson writes corroborating his assistant's statements. The Collector of Customs at Jacksonville, Fla., J. A. Dockey, writes to the Supervisor that the State Tax Collector and his wife had been brutally murdered in Washington county, adjoining Jackson, and that there had been seven murders in Jackson county since the 3d inst; and the Deputy Collectors and Assistant Assessors of Internal Revenue are in imminent danger. The Supervisor has called for troops.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR CONTRADICTED.

It is not true, as recently published, that Minister Washburne has applied to the State Department for $15,000 in gold for contingent expenses. The facts are, as obtained from an official source, that Minister Washburne, Minister Curtin, and Mr. Moran, First Secretary of the United States legation at London, recently severally applied to the Government to allow them each between $300 and $400 additional for office rent. The records of the Fifth Auditor's office show that since Minister Washburne has been in France he has declined to receive certain allowances until he could legally satisfy himself that he was entitled to them.

SUPERVISORS APPOINTED.

Accounts Closed—Handsome Balance.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BOSTON, October 22.—The Executive Committee of the National Peace Jubilee Association having closed their accounts, make the following statement of the result of that great enterprise: Total receipts from sale of tickets, rent of rooms, and all other sources, $290,270; expended, $233,388, including the balance in the hands of the treasurer, $6,882. Immediately on closing their report, they say, "contrary to the general apprehension the receipts of the Jubilee were sufficient to pay all its expenses without calling on the guarantee fund.

"The balance remaining in the Treasury is absolutely at the disposal of the Committee, to be used for the reimbursement of their own expenses, compensation of their services or any other purpose to which they may please to appropriate it." They have unanimously decided to add this amount to the proceeds of a benefit concert, given to Mr. Gilmore as their testimonial to his genius and tireless energy in inaugurating one of the most brilliant and successful entertainments of modern times. The proceeds of the concert amounted to $32,146, and the balance in the Treasury $6,882; making the total testimonial, placed in trust for Mr. Gilmore and his family, $39,028.

ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis Commercial Convention Adjourned Sine Die.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—The National Capitol Convention met at the Southern Hotel this morning, and after the passing of some complimentary resolutions and the appointment by the President of the following sub committee for the purpose of facilitating any business that may hereafter be necessary to transact in the interest of the capitol movement, adjourned sine die:

Judge John D. Caton, of Illinois; Sam. B. Churchill, of Kentucky; L. A. Reaves, of Missouri; Clark E. Carr, of Illinois; John Coburn, of Indiana. It is probable this Committee will call another convention to be held at Washington City.

Soon after adjournment, the delegates and a large number of ladies and gentlemen of this city embarked on board the steamer Belle, of Alton, and visited all the points of interest between Bessell's point, five miles above, and Carondolet, six miles below the city. At the latter place they visited the new iron furnaces and witnessed a draw of molten ore. During the trip a collation was spread and several speeches made. The Convention has been a decided success. Thirteen States and five Territories were represented by some of the ablest and most practical men, and there was an earnestness of purpose and unanimity of sentiment among them rarely manifested in a deliberative body. All seem to be satisfied that a great and growing movement has been inaugurated which will culminate in a reasonable time in the successful carrying out of the object sought for—the removal of the capital of the republic to some point in this valley—the future, if not the present, seat of the empire—the centre of the wealth, population and power of the nation.

There was a large attendance this evening, and addresses made by Mrs. Livermore, of Chicago, Mrs. Blackwell, Lucy Stone, Miss Jennie Collins, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Bradley and others.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, October 22.—During the meeting of the Presbyterian Synod to-day the literature and music of Sabbath Schools were denounced as unfit to be taken into the church, and resolutions were adopted urging Christians to use their efforts to enforce a rigid observance of the Sunday laws, and refuse their votes to persons who violate these laws. To-night the Synod adjourned. It will meet again on the third Tuesday in October, 1870, in Fourth Avenue Church, New York City.

—A man named Lawrence Clancy was arrested at Peru, Illinois, Thursday evening, on suspicion of having murdered his wife. The notice of the death of the woman was given by Clancy himself, who informed his neighbors that she had fallen upon the stove in a fit, and killed herself. Report has it that Clancy has abused his wife, and that a year ago he menaced her life until she caused him to be arrested, and to give bonds to treat her more kindly. Clancy's answers to questions touching the case were so inconsistent and irreconcilable, and all his deportment since the death of his wife so unsatisfactory, that he was ordered to the lock-up to await the action of Coroner's jury.

Transmission of Mental Disease.

Dr. Charles Elam, an English physician, has just published a book in which medical problems are discussed. Of the transmission of mental disorders, he says:

There is no form of heritage more remarkable than that of the tendency to suicide without any other marks of aberration to intellect. Dr. Winslow relates the case of a family where all the members exhibited, when they arrived at a certain age, a desire to commit self destruction; to accomplish which the greatest ingenuity and industry were manifested. Dr. Gall relates a very striking instance of seven children of one man who all enjoyed a competency and good health, yet all possessed a rage for suicide, and all yielded to it within thirty or forty years. "Some hanged, some drowned themselves, and others blew out their brains." Many other examples of the same tendency are brought forward by the same writer. I may add one case to the above from my own experience. Sitting one day with an acquaintance, I noticed some depression in his spirits. After a prolonged silence, he broke out into the following dreary attempt at conversation: "My grandfather hung himself, my uncle took poison, my father shot himself. I shall cut my throat." The facts were correct, but constant surveillance prevented the sequel in his own history.

A Mother to Her Daughter on Marriage.

You are now, my beloved child, about to leave those arms which have hitherto cherished you and directed your every step, and at length conducted you to a safe, happy, and honorable protection, in the very bosom of love and honor. You must now be no longer the flighty, inconsiderate, haughty, passionate girl but ever, with reverence and delight, have the merit of your husband in view. Reflect how vast the sum of your obligation to the man who confers upon you independence, distinction, and, above all, felicity. Moderate, then, my beloved child, your private expenses, and proportion your general expenditure to the standard of his fortune, or rather his wishes. I fear not, with your education and principles, you can ever forget the more sacred duties, so soon to be your sphere of action. Remember the solemnity of your vows, the dignity of your character, the sanctity of your condition. You are amenable to society for your example, to your husband for his honor and happiness and to Heaven itself for those rich talents entrusted to your care and your improvement; and though in the maze of pleasure, or the whirl of passion, the duties of the heart may be forgotten, remember, my darling child there is a record which will one day appear in terrible evidence against us for our least omission.—Moore's Rural New Yorker.

IT is an Indian sign, that when the first snow falls, as many days as it lacks of the end of the month there will be as many snow storms. According to this, the first snow having fallen on the 19th, there will consequently be thirteen snow storms during the winter.

A GERMAN minister named Tacut, a resident of Genoa, Ohio, jumped from a train on the Lake Shore road, a few days ago, while it was in motion. He was asleep in the coach and when awakened by the conductor, was so badly frightened that he took the perilous leap. He was picked up and found to be severely though not dangerously injured.

THE friends of Col. Ed. S. Meyer, at Canton, Ohio, are in receipt of intelligence from Texas, leading to the belief that he and his wife and child have been captured, perhaps murdered, by the Camanche Indians. He was expected to return on Wednesday of last week, and this fact tends to confirm the belief, at least of his capture.

A GENTLEMAN in Delaware who purchased an excursion ticket for Philadelphia, and was unable to use it on the day designed, as the trains were prevented from running by the flood, presented it to the conductor a few days after. The conductor refused to take it, and attempted to put him off the train. The passenger has since entered suit against the Company.

IN Cincinnati a few days ago a man, while on the fifth story of a trunk establishment, fell through a hatchway to the ground floor, catching the rope twice in decending, and alighting upon a trap door. His injuries for a time were not considered serious, and he was able to walk about without assistance, but upon being conveyed to his home he became helpless.

THEY have discovered a wonderful spring in one of the streets at Washington. The flow comes out just below the edge of the curbstone, and runs into the gutter, and so on down hill. The liquid is dark in color, and emits a pungent, unpleasant odor, something like petroleum with considerable ammonia in it, and when it forms in little pools, a sort of metallic-looking crust gathers on the surface.

A FEMALE somnambulist, in New Haven, Conn., left her bed the other night, went to the closet, selected the laudanum bottle from a number of others, and took a hearty draught. The cold air, or something else, finally awakened her, and when she found out what she had done there was a lively stirring for a doctor. She was kept walking for seven hours, and narrowly escaped fatal consequences.

THE clergymen of Bucyrus, Ohio, have united in entering their protest "against the practice of dancing at any time, or anywhere, as an amusement," and request that hereafter they be "spared the mortification of being present, by invitation, at any social gathering of our neighbors or fellow citizens, or any other meeting for lawful purposes, where promiscuous dancing will be allowed as a part of, or in any wise connected with the occasion."

A BUFFALO young lady entering a street car, perceiving that all the seats were occupied, reached up a prettily gloved hand to the pendant strap-supporters and prepared to stand it out. Two or three young men, after looking uneasily at each other for about half a minute—perhaps waiting to see which one would get up first—arose simultaneously and proffered their seats to the fair stranger. Her answer we record here as a precedent for all other young ladies: "No, thank you! gentlemen, I am quite as able to stand as yourselves."

THERE is a young man in Norwich, nineteen years of age, who, during the past week, has become so near deaf that one can hardly scream loud enough to make him hear, and whose voice has sunk into an almost unintelligible whisper. This loss of speech and of hearing has been gradual. His bodily health is good, and he has been about the streets all the time. An uncle suffered the same misfortune in the same manner when eleven years of age, and has been deaf and dumb ever since. The case is a very sad one, and sorely puzzles the physicians.

A STRANGE story comes from Jerusalem, by way of a rabbi of Hungary, concerning a vision which appeared to an Israelite worshipping near Solomon's Temple last month. It was a column of fire, from which proceeded a voice warning the devotee of the coming this year of the Messiah. The man so addressed then went to the city and spoke prophetically of what he had heard. Thereupon the people treated him as an imposter, and some even went so far as to seek to take his life; but he, as if miraculously endowed with more than human strength, fought hundreds of his assailants, and when afterward a battalion of soldiers was sent to arrest him, baffled them in their efforts to capture him.

THE British Museum has lately received the fossil remains of a flying dragon, measuring upward of four feet from tip to tip of the expanded wings. The bones of the head, wings, legs, tail, and great part of the trunk with the ribs, blade bones, and collar bones are imbedded in dark lias shale from Lyme Regis, or the Dorsetshire coast. The head is large in proportion to the trunk, and the tail is as long as the rest of the body; it is extended in a straight stiff line, the vertebral bones being surrounded and bound together by bundles of fine long needle-shaped bones; it is supposed to have served to keep outstretched, or to sustain a large expanse of the flying membrane or parachute which extended from the tips of the wings to the feet, and spread along the space between the hind limbs and tail, after the fashion of certain bats.

THE following bear story comes from Minnesota: A Swede man was out looking for his cattle, with an army musket, loaded with buckshot, upon his shoulder. Going down a bluff, he discovered a large hole, with fresh signs of some animal burrowing in it. He commenced poking into the hole with a stick, when an old she bear came growling up from the burrow. The Swede quickly confronted her with the musket, and blew the top of her head off, dropping her dead at the mouth of the hole. As soon as the fumes of his powder had time to penetrate the cavern into which he had fired, one of the bear's cubs came to the front, but was unable to get out, owing to the carcass of the old one blocking up the entrance. He shot the cub in the breast, killing it instantly; then another cub, and still another followed suit, and were themselves dispatched in the same manner. The Swede had now four bears lying dead in the hole, and, this being all the bears he wanted for that day, he went home and rallied the neighbors to come and see his game and help get the bears away.

AN extraordinary case of injury and death recently transpired in Newfield, N. Y. A Mrs. Freer went into her garden to pick some peaches, and climbed into a tree for that purpose. Unfortunately, she stepped upon a limb which was insufficient to bear her weight and it broke, letting her fall about six feet to the ground. The earth was soft, but nevertheless she dislocated an ankle and the bone thrust itself through the flesh fully six inches, and the flesh and tendons of the foot were torn loose in such a manner that nothing was left intact except the tendon of the heel and about an inch and a half of the flesh and skin. The dujointed bone of the ankle buried itself in the ground over six inches, forcing the flesh of the leg up to that extent. There was no fracture whatever, only a dislocated ankle and a horrible laceration of the integuments. The unfortunate lady was attended by a surgeon as soon as possible, but the injury was so severe that she died on the following Tuesday. The limb mortified as far as the knee before her death.

IT is reported by a gentleman who has just arrived in New Orleans from Puerto del Rey, that a regiment of black horse cavalry has been recently organized in Cuba, and that it is creating havoc among the Spaniards. It is commanded by Col. Lawrence Orton Williams, who has been for the last six years believed to have been executed as a spy at Franklin, Tennessee, in 1863, by a United States drumhead court-martial. It seems that he was not executed, having been smuggled out of the country by old army friends and conveyed to Cuba, where he settled and married a wealthy creole, and has since lived in affluence. His regiment of patriots is made up of negroes, mounted on black horses, and is said to be not inferior to Forest's original squadron. Colonel Williams is known as Don Immanuel Orton. His rank is Brigadier General. He sent his wife to Europe in September, and has enlisted for the war, contributing his entire fortune, which is very large. For six years he has lived on a ranche near Santo Malo, which his wife inherited soon after her marriage.

THE Ridgewood Water Works, for the supply of Brooklyn, Long Island, have just put in operation a new and powerful steam pumping engine of the Thames-Ditton pattern, capable of pumping eighteen millioe gallons every twenty-four hours into the reservoir, at an elevation of 105 feet. The diameter of the cylinder is 85 inches, the stroke being 10 feet, the diameter of the pump 50½ inches, and the diameter of the piston rod 8½ inches. The distance from the centre of the beam to the bottom of the well is 66 feet. The fly-wheel is 26 feet in diameter, and weighs 35 tons, while the weight of the engine itself is 400 tons. The water is pumped through a force main 36 inches in diameter and 3,500 feet in length, and when the three engines in the establishment are all at work four millions of gallons can be pumped into the reservoir in twenty-four hours. If two steam pumps of equal power to the one at Brooklyn were placed in the old engine house at Fairmount, the water famine of last summer would be an event of rare occurrence.

THE colossal statue, or petrified remains of an immense human being, found near the village of Cardiff, Onondaga county, New York, is creating considerable excitement. Most of those who have examined it are of the opinion that the form is a petrified human body. The under portions of the left back and arm are slightly honey-combed by, probably, the constant filtration of the water for many years. At a point twenty miles distant from Cardiff, within a very short time, in the work of grading for the Cazenovia & Canastota Railroad, it is stated, five mammoth human beings were exhumed, one of them eleven feet tall. There is now in the possession of the Onondaga Historical Association, a fish near one foot long, petrified to a perfect stone solidity, which was found near Cardiff, and the color of this petrified fish is very similar to the Cardiff giant stone. Mr. W. B. Kirk, of Syracuse, when living at Cardiff many years ago, found there a good size perch that was perfectly petrified. Five miles further down the valley, in what is known as the Onondaga Valley Cemetery, in taking up a human body for removal some years ago, it was found to be solid stone; still further north, but in the same range, the corpse of a child, on being taken up, was found to be petrified—solid stone. Still another case, the body of a man who had been buried a few years was taken up for removal, and, being found a perfect petrification, the widow had it taken home, and it is yet retained in the house, and has never been reburied.

SEGAR etiquette in Cuba is, when you ask for a light, even if the party be a stranger, to pull out your case and offer him a segar, by way of recognizing the civility in stopping to accommodate you.

THERE are very many destitute Cuban exiles in this country at the present time. It is estimated that there are nine thousand in New York, two thousand at Key West, and many scattered in other sections of the country.

UNLESS an end is made of the "impudent business" of "interviewing," the New York Tribune says "strangers of celebrity will avoid visiting America as surely as if Carlyle's stigma were indeed valid—as if we were in truth an aggregate of thirty million bores."

A CAUTIOUS itemizer tells what is the matter with a noted lady in the following terms: "The Princess de Metternich is to retire from Society for a little while, and is buying lots of edgings, insertions, muslins, and so on, which she is making up into little garments too large for a doll and too small for herself."

AN Indiana paper recently announced a marriage in due form, and last week made a correction. Hearing the gentleman was married, his name was published in connection with that of a lady who had told the editor but a short time before that she was engaged to him. As it turned out he married another lady.

FATHER DE SMET, the venerable Indian missionary, says he advised Brigham Young, in 1847, to take his tribe to Salt Lake. He says that at the same interview Young told him that he thought the Catholic was more nearly in unison with the Mormon Church than any other, and that he responded that the two churches might be considered, in his opinion, as belonging to a circle, of which the Catholic Church was the head and the Mormons the tail. This is rather an unusual description of a circle, but it is Father De Smet's.

IN one of the Providence (R. I.) Episcopal Churches, last Sunday, the temperature was rather low, and as the service proceeded, some of the least zealous of the worshipers arose one by one and left the house. This continued until the good Rector announced the text of his discourse, which was the following passage from the eighth chapter of the gospel of St. John: "And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one." It is hardly necessary to say that the remainder of the congregation waited for the benediction.

MR. GREELEY having proclaimed this a "good year for bolting," George W. Blunt, one of the Radical high priests of New York City, takes him at his word, and proclaims his determination to follow the advice, for these among other reasons: "First—Mr. Greeley has not the strong common sense necessary to qualify him for an important office. Second—He has not the firmness for the place. Had his advice been followed at the beginning and during the rebellion, we should have been under the feet of the rebels. Moreover, he bailed Jeff. Davis. Third—He has not the elements of truth strongly. He has used his newspaper in telling untruths, which he never retracts or atones for."

A Generous Husband.

In a recent speech Lucy Stone related the following: Perhaps fifteen or sixteen years ago, in a very good State, I saw a woman with a pleasant Quaker face, under a simple Quaker bonnet—I rather liked it—and her Quaker husband sitting by her with his broad-brimmed hat on. They had spent many years together, you could see by their faces. He was just bidding her good-bye as the train was starting, and I heard her ask him for a little money. I did not at all wish to hear what they said, but I heard that he had bought her a ticket, and saw that he had taken her satchel politely on his arm. She hated to ask him for the money; a great many other women have hated to ask for it, too. She began to say, "I wish I had a little"—she did not want to finish, thinking that he would think of it, and give it to her, but he did not. So out it came all at once. "May be I'll want a little money while I am gone." The good, honest Quaker turned his face toward her with surprise, and said; "What hast thou done with the quarter I gave thee last week?"

SINCE the P. P. Party can't have Pennsylvania, will it comfort them to hear that they have again saved California? The friends of the perishing Pershing here should be consoled with the two Judges whom they elect on the far-away Pacific shore. If California jurisprudence could only exult in the bodily presence of Pershing and Sharswood!

THE allegations which establish the complicity of Gen. Butterfield, Assistant Treasurer at New York, in the recent operations of the exploded gold ring, are very specific and circumstantial, leaving scanty hopes for the successful refutation which the country demands, as the alternative of his prompt retirement from that responsible office. This is understood to be also the view taken by the Administration.

A NEW YORK dispatch talks of an early consolidation of the entire railway line from New York to Omaha, via Albany, Buffalo and Chicago, swallowing up the Erie road and both lines from Chicago westward. Even New York declines to be responsible for the truth of this report, accrediting it to a Chicago source. There is probably but one difficulty in the way of a successful arrangement of this sort. That difficulty is represented by the Pennsylvania Central Railroad.

IN March last, we all regarded Mr. Andrew Johnson as 'politically dead. We now hear from Tennessee that he is very dead, indeed. Even that just now bitterly reactionary State declines the not doubtful reputation which he would reflect upon her as one of her Senators at Washington. But a change of three votes would have elected him. Evidently, Tennessee hankered for him, but dared not stand the hazard of the die. He is beaten by Mr. Henry Cooper, of whose antecedents we only hear that he has abilities, and a consistent Union record. We should congratulate Tennessee more cordially if his majority had been more largely decisive.

◆

A POLITICAL friend favors us with a copy of an ultra Democratic journal entitled the Standard, and published at Port Gibson, Mississippi, in which the editor extravagantly praises a worthy colored candidate for the legislature, who was "born a slave, and has bravely risen from a lowly condition to one of honor and respectability." Our friend proposes as a conundrum: "How long will it be before the Pittsburgh GAZETTE and Post will talk as kindly and boldly of the negro as the ultra-Democrat of Mississippi?" We answer, on our part, that we are always prepared to say kind and good things of worthy men, whether their skins be white or black.

◆

THE SPIRIT of our own comments upon certain impertinent suggestions, not to say impudent insinuations, recently addressed by the New York Tribune to the Legislature of this State, was in exact accord with Republican sentiment in the anthracite counties. The Scranton Republican refers to the Tribune's article thus:

> The article closes with the usual amount of buncombe invariably indulged in by the editorial writers of the Tribune when treating upon the coal buestion, of which indeed they are thoroughly ignorant, and upon which they could readily inform themselves did they really cherish for the miner the friendly interest they profess.

The Wilkesbarre Spirit declares:

> The Republican Legislature of Pennsylvania will not ask a farthing from the miners for doing justice. For that we feel willing to vouch.

◆

WE HEAR a doubtful rumor from Texas that the friends of Hamilton, the bush whacking candidate for Governor, have been "materially strengthened by the opposition of the Administration, which has aroused their energies for the canvass," and may ensure his election. Fudge! All rumors of this sort are of a piece with the unreliable dispatches, from every part of the South, which the exclusively ex-rebel agents of the Associate Press have been sending us for three years past. When an item of intelligence would give a fair show for the Republicans, or reveal too much of Ku-kluxism, these fellows never let it get through if they knew it. In this light, nineteen-twentieths of all our Southern political news has required to be discounted, leaving not to exceed five per cent. of solid truth.

Davis, in Texas, and Alcorn, in Mississippi, the regular straight-out Republican nominees, will be the next Governors of their respective States.

◆

THE National Convention of the friends of Woman Suffrage, to be held at Cleveland, November 24th and 25th, may be anticipated as the most important demonstration in that cause which the country shall have yet witnessed. The call, which is signed with all the well-known names of the leading supporters of the movement, as well as by many new and influential friends, of either sex, and from nearly every Northern and Middle State, is very happily framed to ensure the largest attendance, as well as the broadest consideration of the general subject. Presenting the need for an "American Woman Suffrage Association which shall embody the deliberate action of the State organizations and carry with it their united weight," this invitation clearly remits all questions to the Convention, and contemplates the widest latitude of discussion. It is likely that the movement may ultimately ascribe its triumphs, or its defeat, to the practical wisdom which shall guide the deliberations of this, the first really important and authoritative political congress of an unsexed Republic.

OUR DIPLOMACY AT MADRID.

Our Minister at Madrid, Gen. SICKLES, has been very freely censured, by a portion of the American press, including all the opposition journals, and some of those which nominally support the administration, for his alleged diplomatic indiscretion in the treatment of our proposition to mediate between Spain and her revolted colonists. At first, these journals indulged in harsh comments upon his tender of any mediation whatever, their ostensible objection being that he had thereby prejudiced the subtantial interests of the insurgents. But when, subsequently, he withdrew the offer, upon the clear intimation of the Madrid government that it was not acceptable in its scheme, the indignation of his critics was thundered at his head, for what was declared to be a base surrender of Cuban interests and a discreditable compromise of our National dignity.

It now transpires that the offer of mediation was originally founded upon an unofficial intimation, from General PRIM himself, that such an offer would be acceptable to Spain. This intimation came to the President through Mr. Forbes, of New York, a personal friend of Prim. In reply, the views of the Administration were confided to that gentleman, who was sent back to Madrid. Subsequently, Gen. SICKLES was appointed Minister. His instructions included the following basis for the mediation thus desired by the Spanish Government:

1. The independence of Cuba.
2. An indemnity to be paid by the Cubans to the Spanish Government, secured by a lien upon their revenue—the United States to guarantee the payment of this sum, in a fiduciary capacity.
3. An armistice pending the arrangement of these details.

On arriving at his post, our Minister was surprised to learn from Mr. Forbes that Gen. PRIM had changed his view of the situation, no doubt because of the peculiar state of public sentiment in Spain, and he made it known to our Minister that no such proposition could be accepted if made. Guided by this knowledge, Gen. SICKLES confined his interposition to a simple offer of the kind offices of the Republic, in the interests of humanity. These good offices, in that sense, were not declined, the Madrid officials insisting that the Cuban question was a purely domestic affair. Confidential negotiations were still, however, maintained with PRIM, who at last indicated the following terms as acceptable to the Madrid Cabinet.

1. The insurgents, under the advice of the American Government, to lay down their arms.
2. An immediate and general disarmament of the Volunteers.
3. Election of Deputies to the Spanish Cortes.
4. Plebiscitum by free suffrage on the question of Independence.
5. If the Cubans desire independence, indemnity to be paid to Spain, under guarantee of the United States.

Telegraphed home, these terms were rejected at once by Secretary FISH, who also informed the Spanish Envoy at Washington that, unless our propositions were accepted at Madrid, we should recognize Cuban belligerency forthwith. These facts transpired at Madrid and caused an intense popular excitement, in the midst of which our Minister was advised by the Spanish officials that their government really desired our good offices, but could accomplish nothing at present, and requested the withdrawal of his note. This our minister received authority from Washington to do, and so the affair ended.

It would have been well, looking at this review of the facts, if Secretary FISH had exhibited the same patient reticence, and regard for all the proprieties of the situation, which have been displayed by Gen. SICKLES. While the latter has taken good care never to exceed his instructions, the former has made the great mistake of forgetting that, in consenting to any negotiation on the basis of an informal and diplomatically irregular private understanding with a leading member of the Spanish Regency, we accepted the proprieties of the situation, and the risk of an entirely legitimate official disavowal by that Government. Our Secretary embarked in a back-stairs arrangement, which was wholly outside of legitimate diplomacy, and ought never to have been unmindful of the fact that, as such, the whole business might at any moment be rightfully disavowed by the Madrid Cabinet. Here was the great point of difference. Had the first invitation come to us from that Government officially, instead of in the guise of a private and irregular hint from one of its members, the Administration would have been entitled to insist upon the basis therein indicated—but not otherwise.

Mr. FISH ventured to take the risks of a possible repudiation by Spain, and the contingency did actually come to pass. This gave us no right to hold out the subsequent menace that Cuban belligerency would be recognized. In that threat the Secretary blundered as palpably as unfortunately. We cannot agree with the N. Y. Times, whose account of the facts in this negotiation we have adopted, that Mr. FISH has "done nothing to provoke criticism"—We think, and for the reason stated, that he made a mistake which cannot but be sharply criticised in diplomatic circles, whatever the line of remark upon it may be by our own political journals. In treating a back-stairs suggestion—from no matter what influential source—as having the responsible authority of a formal invitation for our mediation, he overlooked the first principles defining the honorable obligations either of individuals or nations to each other. What he should have demanded as a preliminary, was, that responsible communication which would have clothed us with a right standing in the proposed negotiation, with the resulting right to insist upon Spanish good faith, even at the penalty which his later menace implied. What he actually had, was, in its very nature, fair notice to him of the Spanish right to withdraw and to disavow all responsibility—at any stage of the affair.

The Cuban revolution is purely a domestic question with Spain. Her insurgent subjects have no international standing whatever. The Administration will err in any denial of international rights or privileges to Spain, merely upon the ground of neutrality between her and her Cuban rebels. We have no knowledge of the latter, and can recognize them neither in form nor by inference, until we see good international reasons for admitting their belligerent rights. If, upon any plea of neutrality, we shall in the meantime deny the rights or the comities of the public law to a friendly power as Spain is now, we shall disregard the plainest obligations of that law, as accepted by the world. In this view, the obstacles which are placed in the way of the departure of certain Spanish armed vessels from New York, so far as those obstacles are suggested by the Cuban situation, are clearly forbidden by every fair interpretation of the law of nations.

To secure belligerent rights abroad, the Cubans must establish a government de facto, with something more than a nominal capacity to sustain its existence. Until that shall be their situation—and it is not so now—they are legally rebels, in the consideration of every power in Christendom. We cordially concur with the Times in its view on that point, as follows:

> The Cubans are as much at liberty as ever they were to achieve their independence, if they covet it. But the voice of their great cities is still silent, or is raised against the insurrection. Cubans who appear to be disinterested observers say that the insurrection is only supported by that class which has everything to gain and nothing to lose by social disturbances. The demand for "recognition" is therefore weaker than ever it was, and although it is quite possible that a resolution or two may be introduced into Congress next session in favor of our Government extending belligerent rights to the insurgents, it is quite certain that the matter will rest there. The Administration will not be forced into a false position to please a few hot-brained enthusiasts or a handful of adventurers.

THE recently reported discovery of a petrified man, ten feet high, in Central New York, turns out to have been a little incorrect. The stone discovered, it is now said, was never alive, but is a cleverly carved statue. The question is, when and by whom was this work done. If its antiquity be as great as is supposed, it remains the solitary relic of a people and of a civilization, all other memories and traces of which have vanished. A nation which could produce works of art, of the character which this discovery is represented to have, must have been far superior to the so-called aborigines, who possessed the land when Europeans found it. It is certainly curious, no matter how far back into antiquity they may date, that no remains of their civilization and history have ever before been unearthed in the land. The sculptor who achieved this work must have had metallic tools, and yet the Indians were still but in the stone-period when discovered by the white men. All the arts and implements of the lost race must have disappeared when they themselves were overthrown.

THE time has evidently come when the iconoclasts are to have their little period of triumph again. Our idols are being knocked down all around us. Byron rudely crushed, there comes now a German image-breaker to overturn the great Goethe and grind him to powder. The accusation against this German Jupiter is one of plagiarism, desertion and petty larceny. He is accused of having at one time loved an actress who composed sweet and beautiful songs. He won her affections, stole her songs, appropriated their authorship and deserted the deceived and heart-broken woman. It would be well, before giving credence to this report, to remember that the accused is no petty poet, but is Goethe, the literary Michael Angelo of the age, a man whose immensity of genius and profundity of mind yet seek in vain for parallels. Goethe stealing love-ditties from an actress unknown to fame is about equal to Shakespear and Raphael capturing one of the penny caricatures of their time, and claiming that it and the accompanying motto were their joint productions.

A COTEMPORARY urges the necessity of a new theatre building in Pittsburgh, and we agree that it is a much-needed improvement. At the present there is no building worthy of so large a town or capable of holding all the people who would want, upon great occasions, to visit it. Now, when such attractions as Parepa, or Kellogg, or Bernard, are announced, the line of patient waiters begins to form five or six hours before the ticket office is opened; consequently, all the available seats are taken up before the tail of the queue is reached. With a more expansive stage and efficient machinery, there is no reason why spectacles and grand operas should not be produced as well in Pittsburgh as in New York or Chicago. But if there should be a new theatre built, we hope, nay insist, that it shall be done with some regard for the safety of the audience in case of fire. The law should provide that no public theatre or hall should have less than two broad entrances easy of access, with stairs of stone not too steep for an easy transit.

LOUISVILLE is infested with loafers who crowd the street-corners and rudely stare at or impertinently accost unattended ladies who chance to pass, even in the broad light of day. Nor can the police be found to afford the necessary protection. Once, we made the same complaint here. Then the corners and sidewalks of our main thoroughfares were daily crowded with lounging men who spat upon the clothes of passers by and made running critiques upon all unfortunate enough to attract their attention. This was, but we believe is no longer the case. Fifth, Market and Smithfield streets are again uninfested, and in Allegheny, Federal street, though much lounged in, is vastly improved. It is to be hoped that after Louisville has endured the evil as long as Pittsburgh did, she may achieve an equally happy deliverance.

FALSE announcements of marriages are constantly to be found in eastern city journals, and often in those of the country. There is neither wit nor fun in such achievements, and the perpetrators thereof are only worthy of the severest punishment. To a sensitive girl, a false announcement of her marriage must be a very serious matter, and indeed we are cognizant of cases where such notices have been charged with fatal results.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Not long since we gave the substance of a paragraph in which the Independent, of New York represented that "two-thirds of the students of the General (Episcopal) Seminary" at New York, "had gonet over to the Roman Catholics." The wording of the paragraph was so decided that we supposed it might be true, but we are pleased to learn that there were but two preverts, instead of two-thirds.

The editor of the American Churchman, of Chicago, recently visited Utah. He represents that the knaves in the Mormon Church are nearly all Yankees, including the "apostles," "bishops" and "elders," and all who get the tithes; while the dupes are nearly all very degraded European peasants, many of them from England and Wales, and members by baptism of the English Church. He say "there never existed but one Mormon Irishman, and a Mormon Irishwoman is something totally unknown to naturalists."

Just now the eyes of the civilized world are turned to the Pope, and much speculation is also indulged in regard to the object of the Œcumenical Council, soon to be held in Rome. Some days ago Bishop Domenec, of the Pittsburgh Diocese, on the eve of his departure for Rome, expressed his views pretty fully on the subject. The high position of Archbishop Manning, said to be the leader of the Ultramontane party, who has recently expressed himself in reference to the Sovereign power of the Pope, is significant. We reproduce the following assumption in his address: "The Roman Pontiff—that is, the whole Church of God, for it is all contained in him, and where the head acts all act with him." In another place, says the Independent, he puts in the mouth of the Holy Father this startling language: "I claim to be the supreme judge and director of the consciences of men—of the peasant that tills the fields, and the prince that sits on the throne; of the household that lives in the shade of privacy, and the legislature that makes laws for kingdoms. I am the sole last supreme judge of what is right and wrong."

Bishop Ames is reported to have said in a late address, that he was not born in the Methodist Episcopal Church. His grandfathers were both ministers—one Episcopal, the other Congregational—while he, absorbing the essence of both, came out a Methodist.

The attorney of the Methodist Book Concern, E. P. Fancher, Esq., one of the best lawyers in New York city, in an article in the Christian Advocate, declares the Concern is not involved in any improper liability of any nature, does not owe a dollar contracted by fraud, is stronger to-day than ever it was in pecuniary resources and property, and its assets exceed in value, according to the judgment of those acquainted therewith, more than a million of dollars above all liabilities, and more than any exhibit of theirs which has ever been made.

Mrs. Van Cott, of New York, of whom so much has been said for and against, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and by outsiders, some months ago, when she was licensed by a Quarterly Conference to preach the Gospel, has been assisting the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Chicopee, Massachusetts, to hold a protracted meeting—resulting in the addition of over sixty persons. Resolutions were adopted approving and commending her as an evangelist. She is now preaching in Boston. It will be remembered her case was not acted upon by the Annual Conference, having supervision over the quarterly conference, which gave her license, but was laid over until the next meeting in April 1870.

The United Presbyterian, in its defense of the Presbytery for appointing a preacher to fill the pulpit of Mr. J. R. Miller, a United Presbyterian minister, who lately left that denomination, by which act he was prevented from preaching his farewell sermon, states that this was in accordance with the established rule, and that Mr. Miller ought to have preached his farewell sermon before closing his connection with the church. We do not understand this to be the "established rule," as we learned that months after a United Presbyterian minister had severed his connection with a church in the adjoining city and united with another denomination, that the congregation invited him to preach for them before he left for his new field of labor in the West.

Rev. Professor Hackett, well known for his connection with the Baptist Bible Union, will shortly assume the duties of Professor of New Testament Exegesis, in the Rochester Theological Seminary.

During the late annual meeting of the Friends of Indiana, at Richmond, the meeting felt the impulse of the new religious interest which has been pervading the body for some time past. In regard to dress, while it was not expected that women would attire themselves in the ancient fashion, nevertheless it was hoped that the young, if deviating from what is styled the plain garb, would have for their motive simplicity and convenience.

The East Genessee Methodist Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, lately passed a series of resolutions disapproving Free Masonry in very strong terms.

Bishop Potter, of the New York Episcopal Diocese, has, during the fifteen years of his Episcopate, confirmed forty-one thousand persons, and admitted four hundred to Holy Orders.

A correspondent of the Christian Intelligencer, of New York, says that Ex-President Pierce, for years, attended the Second Congregational church of Concord, but during the war he could not sit easy under the patriotic preaching of the pastor, and was led to go to the Episcopal Church, in whose communion he died.

It is stated the altar of St. Stephen's church, New York city, Twenty-eighth street, just finished, cost sixty thousand dollars.

Bishop McIlvaine sometime ago was represented by a correspondent of the Church Journal, that he was in a fair way to become "the tallest High Churchman in the land." But the Bishop declares that this is "wholly false." At a recent ordination, as is his custom, he himself led an extempore prayer meeting just previous to going into the church for the public services.

The United Presbyterian, speaking of the Birmingham United Presbyterian church, under the pastoral care of Rev. Wm. M. Coleman, recently repaired and beautified, says the debt that had been hanging over them, has been paid off. On their late communion occasion they had a large and encouraging accession of members.

STATE ITEMS.

YORK is enjoying a matrimonial furore.

THE Easton Daily Argus died with Packer.

OUTRAGES by the Philadelphia police continue.

TYPHOID FEVER of a very malignant type prevails in Altoona.

THE chestnut crop is unusually large this year. Mifflin county expects to gather fifteen hundred bushels.

THE Baptist State Convention, in session at Reading this week, designated Pittsburgh at the place of meeting next year.

THE receipts of the four principal agricultural fairs in Easton, Pennsylvania, this fall were: Reading, $6,296; Doylestown, $8,500; Allentown, $6,930; Easton, $6,000.

A PRIMITIVE one story edifice in Germantown, erected about one hundred and fifty years ago, and almost interruptedly inhabited during that time, was demolished last week to give place to dwellings of modern style.

COL. GEO. W. ALEXANDER, the victim of the Berks county whisky ring, recently pardoned by President Grant, was welcomed home to Reading on Monday last by a general outpouring of the people. Thousands met him at the depot, and escorted him to his home.

ON Friday of last week, during the closing hours of the Franklin County Agricultural Society's exhibition, at Chambersburgh, Dr. J. A. Maclay, of Greenvillage, was thrown from his horse and fell upon his head on the track, receiving such injuries as caused his death on Monday morning.

THE vote for Representatives in the Westmoreland and Indiana district was:

	West'd.	Indiana.	Total.
Fulton, R	4,812	3,968	8,780
Kreps, R	4,782	3,986	8,768
Marshall, R	4,805	3,774	8,579
Latta, D	6,187	2,025	8,212
Bierer, D	6,197	1,963	8,149
M'Cormic, D	6,134	2,180	8,314

WILLIAM BEESON, a citizen of Uniontown, Fayette county, while passing along the National Road, on Wednesday evening of last week, at a secluded spot known as "Turkey's Nest," was accosted by a highway robber, and after being relieved of his gold watch and a small sum of money, was allowed to continue his journey.

AT an early hour on Sunday morning, as a locomotive attached to a through-express freight from Philadelphia to Williamsport and the West was passing through Tamaqua, the engine was thrown from the track and upset into Wabash Creek, in consequence of a misplaced switch. The engineer, conductor, and fireman were held fast beneath the wreck, and had to be extricated with crowbars. The two former were slightly injured. The fireman had the main arteries of his left arm severed.

ON the farm of West Fry, at Finleyville, Washington county, near the Peters creek bridge, there is a spot of ground, about twenty five feet square on the surface, where nothing has grown this year, not even a spear of grass, although previously productive as other parts of the field. Potatoes planted there last season, never even sprouted. Strange noises had been heard, as of the approach of a storm, and investigation proved that they proceeded from the spot indicated. Recently a hole was dug at the locality, and at the depth of four feet small crevices were discovered, from which strong streams of gas gushed with a sort of hissing sound, and upon being ignited burned with a clear, steady flame. Water soaking into the excavation, the stream of gas caused it to bubble, and the gas accumulating on the surface burned with a bluish light like the flames from alcohol. The discovery has attracted much curiosity in the neighborhood.

State Politics.

The Republicans of Clearfield never worked harder than this year, but there were local influences, affecting particular sections of the county, which no amount of labor in canvassing could subvert. Under other circumstances they consider the small loss they sustained, very creditable to them.

Tioga's official majority for Geary was 2,710. A private letter says: The Democrats voted for Governor and Judge on the same ticket. We did not find it out till election began, when we sent as far we could to have the votes for Pershing included. Most of his 1,112 can be thrown out on a contest. In one place our boards threw out the vote for Governor also, which makes us 45 better off than we should be. Their tickets were headed, "State," and then read inside, "For Governor, Asa Packer," "For Judge of the Supreme Court, C. L. Pershing," which they voted in one ticket. Some think we might have excluded all the votes for Governor; I think not, but there would seem to be some foundation for such opinion. (See Purdon's Digest, p. 377, sec. 54, 2 par., rep. 534.)

A FARMER plowing in his field near Naples, Illinois, turned up a pot of gold coin. He stopped his team, examined the glittering metal closely, counted it, and found that it amounted to four thousand dollars. However, a doubt depressed his soul. He feared the stuff might possibly have been deposited there by counterfeiters, and might prove worthless. He took it to Winchester and sold it to one of the banks for five thousand and odd dollars in greenbacks.

BONAPARTE, AUG. 15, 1769.—HUMBOLDT, SEPT. 14, 1769.

BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

Ere yet the warning chimes of midnight sound,
 Set back the flaming index of the year;
Track the swift-shifting seasons in their round
 Through five-score circles of the swinging sphere.

Lo, in yon islet of the midland sea
 That cleaves the storm-cloud with its snowy crest,
The embryo heir of empires yet to be,
 A month-old babe upon his mother's breast.

Those little hands, that soon shall grow so strong
 In their rude grasp great thrones shall rock and fall,
Press her soft bosom, while a nursery song
 Holds the world's master in its slender thrall.

Look! a new crescent bends its silver bow;
 A new-lit star has fired the eastern sky;
Hark! by the river where the linden's blow
 A waiting household hears an infant's cry.

This, too, a conqueror! His the vast domain
 Wider than the widest sceptre-shadowed lands;
Earth and the weltering kingdom of the main
 Laid their broad charters in his royal hands.

His was no taper lit in cloistered cage,
 Its glimmer borrowed from the grove or porch;
He read the record of the planet's page
 By Etna's glare and Cotopaxi's torch.

He heard the voices of the pathless wood;
 On the salt steppes he saw the starlight shine;
He scaled the mountain's windy solitudes,
 And trod the galleries of the breathless mine.

For him no fingering of the love-strung lyre,
 No problem vague, by torturing schoolmen vexed;
He fed no broken altar's dying fire,
 Nor skulked and scowled behind a Rabbi's text.

For God's new truth he claimed the kingly robe
 That priestly shoulders counted all their own,
Unrolled the gospel of the storied globe,
 And led young Science to her empty throne.

While the round planet on its axle spins
 One fruitful year shall boast its double birth,
And show the cradles of its mighty twins,
 Master and Servant of the sons of earth.

Which wears the garland that shall never fade,
 Sweet with fair memories that can never die?
Ask not the marbles where their bones are laid,
 But bow thy ear to hear thy brothers' cry:

"Tear up the despot's laurels by the root,
 Like mandrakes shrieking as they quit the soil!
Feed us no more upon the blood-red fruit
 That sucks its crimson from the heart of Toil!

"We claim the food that fixed our mortal fate:
 Bend to our reach the long forbidden tree!
The angel frowned at Eden's eastern gate—
 Its western portal is forever free!

Bring the white blossoms of the waning year,
 Heap with full hands the peaceful conqueror's shrine
Whose bloodless triumphs cost no sufferer's tear!
 Hero of knowledge be our tribute thine!"

"Eternal Dish Washings."

We are not sure that the ladies will thank us for reproducing the following by Rev. T. K. Beecher, as it may be simply repeating a, to them, tiresome truth; but it will show them that at least one man appreciates their real condition in life:

> The quiet fidelity with which "she" will dish-wash her life away for "him" is a marvel of endurance and grace. Just here is the servitude of woman heaviest—no sooner is her work done than it requires to be done again. Man works up jobs, ends them, and takes his pay. This pay can be translated into something else desirable. A man works all day, and draws pay for his day's work. This pay allures him, as oats does a horse, homeward bound. Thus men work by terms and jobs; and although work is endless as to quantity, yet when cut up thus into terms and jobs, we men go heartily on our journey and count our milestones.
> Not so with our mate. She mends our socks, and we put our irrepressible toe upon the darned spot, and she darns it again. "She washes for the family, and the family makes haste to send back the same garments to be washed again. "She" puts the room in order, and we get ready to be "rid up" again. The same washing, the same socks, the same room every time. She has no successive jobs, no terms, no pay day, no tally stick of life. She washes the same dish three hundred and sixty-five—yes, three times three hundred and sixty five times every year. No wonder she breaks it and is glad of it! What a relief to say "I've done with that dish!"—Moore' Rural New Yorker.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CU[illegible] have a medicine of the greatest value [illegible] conditions. As alterative, a tonic, [illegible] and resolvent, succoring nature and [illegible] recuperative powers of the system. Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

MHE EXHAUSTED SYSTEM.

Summer is a debilitating season, and the sudden change of temperature which takes place at this period of the year finds the healthiest of us considerably enervated by the preceding heat, and the weakly and delicate almost prostrated. This is not a favorable condition in which to encounter the raw winds of October and its chilling fogs and night dews, and consequently intermittant fever, dysentery, billious attacks, and rheumatism are more or less prevalent everywhere, but especially in localities where the atmosphere is naturally unwholesome. In order to avoid the dangers arising from these causes the exhausted system should now be renovated and invigorated by a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This purest and most potent of all vegetable tonics and exhilerants regulates the secretions while it renews the strength, and purifies the fluids of the body, while it gives firmness and vigor to the nervous organization. Free from the unpleasant flavor which renders the ordinary tonics so repulsive, composed of extracts and juices of the choicest vegetable invigorants and correctives, mingled with a diffusive stimulant from which every noxious element has been expelled, this renowned preparation is, in all respects, the very best medicine of its kind that the world has ever known. Such is the opinion of distinguished medical profession, and the general verdict of the public, after an experience of twenty years, during which HOSTETTER'S BITTERS has attained a greater popularity and a more extensive sale than any specie ever advertised in the columns of the American press.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October 22, 1869.

Gold opened firmer to-day at 131⅛, declined on a dull market to 130⅞, and closed inactive at 131¼. The advance is due more to a desire of a few of the large holders of gold, who were compelled to settle at 135, to advance the market price approaching that figure, as well as to prevent a too rapid decline in the face of the payment of 25 millions of gold interest on November next. The purchase of bonds and cancelation of a considerable amounts of our national indebtedness. Whether this step was a judicious one and had the full effect on the credit of the Government is doubtful, but it must certainly have improved the condition of our finances, and to this is mainly due the low price of gold and a tendency to lower quotations before Congress will meet. What that body will do with the bonds purchased, whether it will order a re-issue and cancelation of other debts such as the three per cent. certificates remains to be seen, and will naturally effect the future course of gold. Heavy forced shipments of grain and cotton may do its share likewise. What the immediate course of gold is likely to be, is reflected by the decline of foreign exchange, and unless lower gold prices prevail, remittances will be made sparingly.

Government bonds are tending downward, although for the moment a speculative feeling has sprung up, based on the usual November purchases from the proceeds of the sale of coupons.

Stocks are strong and well sustained. New York Central, however, declined about 3 per cent. Efforts are made to advance all our speculative securities for the sake of selling out at an advance, and prior to a tighter money market.

Shipment of currency South and West will soon force down prices. Although the demand for currency will be less felt here this season than formerly, on account of a better supply at home of money, and a general improved condition of the cotton growing states.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 22, 1869.

Money closed at 5 per cent. on Governments and 6@7 per cent. on stocks. There was an increased demand from stock brokers during the day. Prime discounts dull at 16@12. Sterling a little weaker at 9⅛@9⅜. The bids for Government gold amounted to $6,397,000, the whole amount offered. One million was awarded to W. B. Travens at 131 13-100.

Governments firmer and more active, closing firm. Coupons, '81, 19⅞@20; do. '62, 21@21⅛; do. 64, 19⅝@19⅞; do '65, 20@20⅛; do. new, 17⅞@18; do '67, 17⅞@18; do. '68, 17⅞@18; 10 40's, 108⅝@108⅞; currency 6s, 107⅝@107¾.

Stocks weak and generally dull and heavy, with a reaction from the best prices of the afternoon. The market has been irregular and unsettled throughout the day, with frequent fluctuations in leading shares. The tendency has been towards lower prices as a general thing, and the closing quotations show a decline in the entire list. A prominent feature in the market this afternoon was an advance in Pittsburgh from 97 to 102. Pacific Mail was quite active at times during the day, with 60⅛@63⅛ as the two extremes. Miscellaneous shares, except Pacific Mail, were dull and neglected, as also Express stocks.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 22.—At the recent decline there is a good business in printed calicos and other staple lines of domestic cottons and woolens, which are selling at camparatively low rates, but the general market is devoid of an animation, and in nine cases out of ten prices favor the seller in some way. Still, we have no important change to notice in cotton goods except in the Pemberton A ticks, which are reduced to 25c per yard.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October 22, 1869.

Business gener[illegible] tive, though nothing to [illegible] there is plenty of room for improvement. The demand for almost everything is restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, and with a strong competition, margins are very slim, and the result is, it requires more work and energy to succeed now in any branch of trade than it did a few years ago, when there was less rivalry and plenty of money. People are beginning to find out that they cannot all be speculators, also, that it is not every one engaged in speculating that succeeds—not one in fifty, hardly one in a hundred.

ASHES—Steady but unchanged—4@4¼ for Soda, and 9 for Pearls.

APPLES—In good supply but with a demand fully up to it, the market is steady and prices maintained; $1,50@3,50 per bbl.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Sales at 5 cts.

BUTTER—Is in good supply and dull but unchanged—33@35 for prime to choice roll.

CHEESE—Market firm and prices well maintained. Sales Western Reserve at 16@17; Factory at 17@17½; Ohio Goshen 18@18½; and New York Goshen 19 cents.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $10@15 per bbl—the outside figure for Sackett's choice "belle" berries.

CARBON OIL—May be quoted at 28¼@29 for 50 or 100 bbl lots, and 30½@31 in a retail way.

CHESTNUTS—In good supply but unchanged—sales at $5,50@6,00 per bushel.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples are quoted at 8@10 cts. per pound, and Peaches at 10 cts. for bright quarters, and 12@14c for bright halves.

EGGS—Firm with sales at 28c, and some dealers quoted at 30—supply light.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand for flour, and the market is quiet and dull though unchanged. We continue to quote Western Winter Wheat flours at $6,25@6,50. Market almost bare of Spring Wheat flour, but there is little or no inquiry for it.

GRAIN—There is nothing new to be said in regard to wheat; notwithstanding the receipts continue light, prices are barely sustained, $1,25 for prime red, and $1,30 for prime white. Corn is in light supply, but the demand, also, is light, and the market is dull and prices unchanged; 90 to 95 for mixed, and $1 for prime yellow, 3 to 5 cents more in store. Rye is coming in freely, mainly from Chicago, and it is dull and nominally unchanged; may be quoted freely at $1@1,05. Oats quiet and unchanged—47@48 on track and wharf, and 50 in store. Brewers and malsters continue to "bear" the barley market, and it begins to look as though prices would have to go lower. The yield both in this country and Canada is said to be unusually heavy, and after deducting one-fourth as having been damaged by the rains there will still, it is claimed, be more than can be consumed between now and next spring. We quote at $1,20 to $1,25@1,30.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond market, of 50 loads at $15@21 per ton.

HUSKS—Higher; sales at 3@3½.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland white lime at $2@2,25 per bbl.

LARD OIL—Extra No. 1, is quoted at $1,44@1,46, and No. 2, at $1,05@1,08.

ONIONS—Sales at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, the outside figure for choice.

POTATOES—Peach Blows 50 cts. per bushel. Prime Jersey Sweets are being sold at $4@4,50 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Shoulders, at 17@17¼; Clear Ribbed Sides, 20¾; Ribbed Sides, 20; plain Sugar Cured Hams, 23@23½. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 19½@20 in tierces; in kegs 21. Mess Pork, $32,75@33.

POULTRY—Sales of chickens at 55 to 65 cents per pair, according to size.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is dull and we now quote at $4,00@4,25. Flaxseed is quoted at $2,35@2,40. No movement in Clover Seed.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

STRAW—Sold in Allegheny market at $12 per ton.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October, 22, 1869.

As the end of the month approaches the oil market appears to be getting more sensitive and excited, and while there, are, as there nearly always is, some "shorts" who feel a little uneasy, yet, from the best information we can obtain, a "corner" is not contemplated. It is claimed however, by parties, who claim to be fully posted, that such a movement was contemplated, some days since, and that it was only abandoned because it did not subsequently promise to be a success.

Compared with yesterday the feeling is considerably stronger, and prices for both crude and refined are higher, and even at the advance, there seemed to be fully as many buyers as sellers. As will be seen the shipment is unusually heavy, reaching over six thousand barrels in the aggregate, and as the advance in freight goes into effect on the first of November, it is reasonable to expect that heavy shipments will be kept up during the balance of the month.

A correspondent takes exception to our statement in yesterday's report in regard to the object of the recent "calls," as follows: "The object of the "call" was apparently to get possession of the actual oil in warehouse on the 29th, and squeeze the "shorts" on the 30th. This was to a great extent frustrated by the parties who were holders of oil when called, calling on others, making the call general and holding their actual oil in reserve to be used as the exigences of the day required."

CRUDE.

The market, compared with yesterday, is consideraly stronger, and prices have still further advanced. Sale 1,000 bbls (40 to 45) seller all year, at 15; 1,000 buyer all year, (40 to 46) at 15¼, and two lots of 1,000 each, same delivery and option, at 15¼. Spot or seller this month, 40 to 45 or 40 to 46 may be quoted at 15@15¼, and these particular gravities are reported scarce.

REFINED.

We can report three lines of 1,000 each November and December, at 33; and 1,000 cases at 36, on board cars here. Late in the afternoon October was reported at 33¼@33⅛bid, and October to December, at 33@33½.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October 22, 1869.

The metal market continues firm, with a demand fully up to the supply, and prices are strong and fully sustained. The fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has reduced the freight on metal seventy-five cents per ton, will tend to increase the receipts from the east; for several years past the arrivals of eastern irons have been restricted considerably, owing to the fact that furnaces in eastern Pennsylvania could ship cheaper to eastern markets. Seventy-five cents per ton, will, it is stated, make a difference of seven dollars and a half per car. [illegible] regard to bar iron and nails there [illegible] new or important characteristics [illegible] of special notice. There is a [illegible]ued steady demand, and, so far as [illegible] learn, card rates are strictly adhered to.

RIVER NEWS.

The river remains stationary at this point with 27 inches in the channel. Weather yesterday hazy and warmer, with indications last evening favorable for rain.

No arrivals, and the New State, for Wheeling, was the only departure.

Capt. Whitfield is here from Texas, prospecting for a boat. Thus far he has not bought, though we understand he has been looking at the steamer Henry A. Jones, now almost finished, and built by Capts. Frank and Dan Marratta, for Trinity River.

Boats in port—Glendale, Messenger, Kate Putnam and Ironsides.

—The Argosy is advertised to leave Cincinnati to-day for New Orleans.

—Capt. A. M. Godfrey, late proprietor of the Baltic House, in Mobile, died recently in that city.

—The Wauaniti arrived at Memphis on Wednesday, and the Glasgow passed Louisville the same day.

—The Louisville left Louisville on Wednesday and was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday.

—It is said that the Tennessee Legislature will pass a bill repealing that giving equal rights to negroes on railroads and steamboats.

—The Tom Morgan has been sold, at St. Louis, to E. Barnes, of the Ohio River, for $2,500. Captain Barnes will take the Morgan into same Southern trade.

—The cabin crew of the Key City, on her last trip down from St. Paul to LaCrosse, became very drunk, and Capt. Bryson set them ashore at LaCrosse to sober up.

—Capt. Abe Hutchinson, formerly of the Phil Sheridan, has purchased the Countess of the Northwestern Union Line, and will run her on the Upper Mississippi, running between Dubuque and Fulton.

—The Dexter has been chartered by Captain Leathers to run between New Orlean and Vicksburgh, until his new boat, now building at Cincinnati, is ready for business. She is en route down the Ohio.

—A St. Louis dispatch says: The Bismarck arrived there the previous night with 1,000 tons of freight taken from the W. R. Arthur, which was still hard aground on the rocks, with a fair prospect of getting off.

—A machinist belonging to the Arsenal of Naples has invented an instrument, which he calls an Amismograph, which indicated with precision the velocity at which a vessel is traveling, the changes in the direction, and the deviation of the compass.

—The steamer Arkansas, from St. Louis, has been, at last accounts, aground two days in the Arkansas river, on Carson's bar, fourteen miles below Little Rock. She will have to await a rise or double trip her freight to Little Rock, which is a very simple operation.

—Says the St. Louis Democrat, of Wednesday: Captain Wm. H. Cupp, who died here on Sunday, was a pilot on the upper Mississippi for thirty two years, and at the age of forty-nine years and eleven months. He was originally from Pennsylvania, and came West at a very early age.

—The place where the W. R. Arthur met the accident, is a chain of rocks opposite Gray's Point, and only a few miles run above Cairo. She took in only thirty inches of water before the worst leak in her hull was stopped, and there after it was no difficult matter to gain on the water with the boat's pumps. It is presumed the boat will be saved. The bell boat, in charge of Capt. Spain, reached her Monday evening. Her entire deck load, or most of it, was thrown overboard to lighten her up.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my12:151-d&F

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.
Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on application.
We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

SECURITY AND COMFORT for the traveling community.
J. B. HARRIS
Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.
It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by state or county.

Run Over.—A little boy, name unknown, was run over by a butcher's wagon, on Ohio street, near Sandusky, yesterday morning. He escaped without serious injury.

Broke his Arm.—A young man named George Kemp, while performing on a trapeze yesterday at the Gymnasium, fell off and broke his right arm. So much for exercise.

Committed.—Yesterday Justice Barker, of Monongahela borough, committed to jail Anna Goodrich for thirty days and Mary McBride for five days, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Horse Stolen.—Yesterday morning, before daybreak, a horse was stolen from the stable of Mr. Thomas Braddock, Phillipsburg, opposite Rochester, Beaver county. It is supposed that the animal was brought to this city.

Nuisance.—Yesterday Alderman Morrow, on complaint of Assistant Health Officer Williams, arrested and fined Constantine Hunkler twenty dollars and costs for maintaining a nuisance in the shape of a bone-boiling establishment opposite the Minersville car station.

Parepa Rosa as "Leonore" in "Trovatore" to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams, who have just concluded a highly successful engagement at the National Theatre, Boston, will open at the New Opera House on Monday night. This will be their farewell appearance for several years, as they propose visiting Europe this winter on a professional tour.

School Tickets.—Hereafter, "school tickets," on the Pennsylvania Railroad, will be issued only to persons presenting a certificate, from a teacher, of regular attendance at school and that the pupil is under sixteen years of age. Blank certificates can be obtained at the rail road office.

Malicious Boy.—James Rafferty must be a malicious boy. He is charged with throwing stones at some houses owned by Mr. David Hutchison, on Boyd's Hill, by which numerous windows were rendered unsightly and unserviceable. Alderman Thomas issued a warrant for his arrest yesterday.

An Alderman Abused. — Yesterday Robert Griffiths was brought before Alderman Taylor, charged with disorderly conduct, in applying vile and abusive epithets to Alderman Thomas in a public house and on the street, without provocation. The accused amicably settled the case by apologizing and paying the costs.

Serious Fall.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Sarah Clark, a lady aged seventy-two, fell down a flight of stairs at the residence of Mr. Williams, her son-in-law on Clark street, breaking her shoulder blade and injuring herself otherwise to such an extent that serious results are apprehended. She was taken to Mercy Hospital.

Gamblers About.—Yesterday Chief of Police Hague received notice that the Mayor of Oil City had given the gamblers, with which that place was infested, twenty-four hours to leave. They left on time, and it is surmised had selected Pittsburgh as a base for future operations. The Chief intends making the city unhealthy for them if they come.

Masonic.—The new Masonic Hall in Allegheny, will be completed by Monday, and be formally dedicated on Tuesday at noon, by R. W. G. M. Richard Vaux. In the evening a grand banquet will be given at the Keystone Rink. Great preparations have been made for the occasion, and it promises to be one of the most imposing affairs of the kind ever witnessed here.

Collided.—Yesterday morning a collision occurred at Wall's Station, Pennsylvania Railroad, between the Cincinnati express and Wall's accommodation. The four rear cars of the accommodation were badly wrecked and a brakeman slightly injured. No passengers were on board the wrecked cars. The accident was caused by the backing in on the main track of the accommodation train by a miscalculation, when the express passed by.

New Device.—A mischievous spirit, like murder, will always come out. Perhaps owing to this fact in connection with the energy of Alderman Morrow's police, Ludwig Richter was brought before that official yesterday charged with tearing the boards off the cellar steps in Joseph Wagner's house, on Stevenson street, and replacing them with the points of the nails up, so that when Mrs. Wagner endeavored to descend she was tripped up, fell on the nails and hurt herself badly. Richter gave bail for trial for malicious mischief, Joseph Wagner appearing as prosecutor.

Parepa Rosa in her great unrivalled to-night.

Who is He?

A letter was received by Chief of Police Hague yesterday, signed Lawrence Hutchings, Fifth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, in which the writer inquired of the whereabouts of R. F. Sperry, supposed to be in Pittsburgh, and desired to know if he had been robbed in Philadelphia in July last. If so, under what circumstances and the property lost. It is supposed that the letter is from a detective who has recovered some stolen property and is thus endeavoring to trace up the owner.

Crushed to Death.

Wednesday last George Shaffer, while engaged in company with two others in digging coal on the premises of Rev. Mr. Winters, of Zelienople, was fatally injured by the fall of a mass of earth and slate in the pit. The debris struck him on the head and crushed it in a horrible manner. He was taken into Mr. Winters' house, but expired in a short time, before medical aid could be secured. Justice Randolph held an inquest upon the remains, when a verdict of accidental death was rendered. The deceased leaves a wife and four children.

Business Suits.

Mr. W. Hespenheide, fashionable merchant tailor, No. 50 Sixth street, late St. Clair, is now making up business suits, for gentlemen, of the most appropriate patterns and styles, and from material, which cannot be excelled in the market. These suits not only look well because of their perfect fit, but have the additional attraction of making the wearer feel easy and comfortable, while they are guaranteed to retain shape until worn out. For fall and winter wear, there are no suits manufactured anywhere more handsome, durable, or in every respect suitable. Gentlemen in need of any article in his line, would do well to patronize Mr. Hespenheide, as we feel certain they will be satisfied, both in the style and prices of his goods.

Caned.

Our genial friend, General A. L. Pearson, District Attorney, was yesterday caned by a number of legal gentlemen, who enticed him into the office of John R. Large, Esq., for the purpose. We don't mean that he was assaulted, but do mean that he was honored with a mark of esteem from his friends in the way of magnificent and valuable gold headed cane. Mr. Large was the orator of the occasion, performing his part in a very happy manner. General Pearson enjoys the respect of the legal fraternity, as well as that of the entire community. The compliment was most worthily bestowed, and we trust the recipient may live long to carry the elegant stick placed in his possession.

Interesting to Farmers—A New Patent Plow.

Joseph S. Godfrey, an ingenious farmer residing in Michigan, has, after a large expenditure of money and more than two years of time, succeeded in making several really important improvements in the plow; and a model of his plow, as the same is patented, has been sent to Mr. S. M. Loveridge, of this city, who will represent the patentee. The plow may be examined at his Life Insurance Agency, No. 42 Fifth avenue, up stairs. This plow combines some entirely new principles. The chief novelty, and perhaps also its chief merit, consists in a revolving self adjusting mould board. It is furnished with an adjustable coulter, which may be used or wholly detached, according to the nature of the soil; also a friction wheel, adjustable to any required depth. Some of the advantages claimed for this novel plow, are.

1st. It plows deeper and draws lighter than any other known plow.

2d. It turns under stubbles, weeds, or coarse manure, without choking.

3d. The common fault of other plows, in wet and clayey soils, is that the furrow is packed and glazed by the pressure of their fixed mouldboard. This is wholly avoided by the revolving mouldboard. This is an improvement which the farmer cannot fail to appreciate.

4th. It leaves stubble land in fine tilth, ready, without barrowing, for the seed.

We have examined this remarkable plow, and feel persuaded that it will be found to possess great practical advantages in lightness of draught by reason of diminished friction in the automatic revolving mould board, and in the tendency of the moving face to pulverize and make friable any but the most stubborn and intractable soils. We are glad to know that Mr. Loveridge has determined to have this plow on exhibition (not, however, to interfere with contestants), at the plowing match to be had under the auspices of Wool Growers' Association on Thursday, 28th inst., on the farm of John Murray, eight miles out on the old Washington road, where the plow will probably be tried, and where we advise both farmers and manufacturers to attend. Such important improvements of the plow as appears to us are justly claimed for the Godfrey plow, are of immense value to the farmer, and they should embrace the opportunity now presented to examine and test the model. Sent here for that purpose.

After the exhibition the plow may be seen by farmers and others at 42 Fifth avenue.

Cherry Alley Again.

The Mayor received a communication purporting to come from "Many Citizens" in the locality of Cherry and Virgin alleys, complaing of the deplorable state of the morals of many persons who inhabit and frequent houses in that famous region, and suggesting that the Mayor order his police to make a raid, and arrest the aforesaid immoral persons. The letter was very properly consigned to the waste basket. If the evils complained of by "Many Citizens" exist to the extent alleged, there is a remedy prescribed by law. And if "Many Citizens" are too cowardly or mean to adopt it, they should not complain. If there is one piece of meanness more detestable than another, it is writing anonymous communications.

Popular.—The Keystone Ware manufactured at the Keystone Pottery, Messrs Kier & Co., proprietors, is among the most popular of the manufactured articles for which Pittsburgh is famous. Such a triumph could only have been achieved by an article of the highest merit. An idea of the character of the stock may be obtained at their warerooms 363 Liberty street.

Monongahela City Fair.—At the Monongahela City Agricultural Fair the American Buttonhole, Overseaming, and Family Sewing Machine was awarded the Diploma, the only premium awarded Sewing Machines at said Fair.

AMUSEMENTS.

OPERA HOUSE.—The grand ovation extended to Mrs. C. Richings Bernard, on the occasion of her benefit last evening, was not only an evidence of the high estimation in which the beneficiary is held, but to our mind it is another proof of the taste and cultivation of Pittsburgh society, in a musical point of view. To say that Caroline Richings Bernard is the peer of other artistes in English Opera is doing her injustice, when, as an artiste, she has no rival. There are others, we freely admit, who are gifted with voices of perhaps greater compass and probably more power, but for high cultivation and sweetness of tone she is unrivalled, and is in truth the queen of the lyric stage. Gounod's grand opera of "Faust" was selected for the occasion, and we doubt if it has ever been presented to an American audience with a stronger and more powerful cast. Mrs. Richard Bernard, as "Margurite," was such a "Margurite" as the author himself might have dreamed of. Throughout the piece she displayed a degree of histrionic talent seldom seen in one possessing such musical powers which were displayed with such telling effect in the "Bijou song," and the song from the window, as to throw the audience into ecstacy. At the close of every scene in which she appeared she was compelled to reappear in front of the curtain. Mr. Haigh's "Faust" was a masterpiece in a musical point of view, as was also the "Mephistopheles" of Mr. Henry Drayton, who, in addition to his musical attainments, is a most accomplished actor. We might in fact particularize each and every member in the dramatis personae. The choruses were excellent throughout, much better in fact then we are usually favored with by travelling opera troupes. A grand matinee will be given this afternoon, when the "Bohemian Girl" will be presented. This evening "Crown Diamonds" will constitute the entertainment.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Last evening, at Parepa's benefit, the Academy was filled with the largest and most brilliant assemblage that has ever graced the auditorium of that elegant establishment. Wallace's charming opera entitled "Maritana," with Parepa in the title role, was given in a manner never before surpassed in this city. The leading character, "Don Caesar De Bazan," was admirably sustained by Mr. William Castle, while Mr. Lawrence as "Charles II," Mr. Campbell as "Don Jose," each did well. On the whole, the opera was delightfully rendered, and the audience evinced their approbation by frequent and hearty applause.

A grand matinee will be given this afternoon, at which will be presented "La Somnambula." The cast includes the accomplished prima donna, Miss Rose Hersee, the popular tenor, Mr. Castle, Mr. Lawrence and other talented members of the great troupe.

To-night the company will give its farewell performance. The bill sets forth a grand operatic melange, introducing the entire double company, in the following gems of three different operas, viz.: the first act of "Trovatore," and the second acts of "Fra Diavola" and the "Bohemian Girl."

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The entertainments at the Pittsburgh Theatre have been unusually interesting during the present week. The Romelli family are creating quite a sensation and are doubtless the most accomplished gymnasts now travelling. A grand matinee will be given this afternoon, at which the Romelli troupe and the entire mammoth company of stars will appear in an interesting variety entertainment.

SELECT READING.—Tuesday evening next Prof. Rufus Adams, of Philadelphia, a finished and popular elocutionist, will give a select elocutionary entertainment at the Academy of Music. His reportoire embraces selections in prose and poetry from a number of leading authors, and is very well calculated to test fully his capacities. In other cities Mr. Adams has achieved marked success, and judging from his reputation his entertainment here will be pleasing and instructive. Tickets may be obtained at the music stores and at the door.

SIGNOR BLITZ.—Our sanctum was honored yesterday with a visit from the old magician and ventriloquist, the original Signor Blitz, who, perhaps, has entertained more people, old and young, during his life than any other man. Although his head is whitened with age still he is as merry, playful and as joyous a boy of ten summers. He will open at Masonic Hall next Monday night with his wonderful tricks, trained birds and dark seances.

Washington County Fair

First premium awarded to the American Button Hole Overseaming and Family Sewing Machine. The superior merits of this machine are being rapidly appreciated and acknowledged by the public. At the recent exhibition of the Washington County Agricultural Society, at which there was active competition, the first and only premium was awarded to the above named machine. The annexed official notification shows that this is no idle assertion.

WASHINGTON, Pa., September 27, 1869.—This is to certify that at the annual exhibition of the Washington County Fair, held on the 22d and 23d of September, 1869, the first and only Diploma on Sewing Machines was awarded to the American Family Sewing Machine.

DAVID AIKEN, Secretary.

The above should of itself be sufficient to satisfy the public; but that in order all may know the opinion of practical operators, the agent publishes the following from the leading tailors of Washington borough:

This is to certify that we have used several different sewing machines in our business, and are fully convinced that the American Machine is the very best in use.

Samuel Shaler, Merchant Tailor.
David Orr, Tailor.
B. Beeckers, Merchant Tailor.
David G. Smith, Tailor.
Charles Post, Tailor
Wm. Pottor, cutter for W. Smith and Son.

This machine will work beautiful button holes eyelet holes embroider over the edge, do "overseaming" as by hand; also, all kinds of stitching, heming, cording, felling, braiding, binding, ruffling, tucking, sewing and gathering on James Espy, corner of Fifth avenue and Market street is the agent.

Relief to Every Household.

The Washing Machine, like the Sewing Machine, is fast becoming one of the necessary wants of every household. The great prejudice which extended to the Sewing Machines for many years, has shown itself toward the Washing Machine, even to a greater degree, through a large sale of those which have either proved utterly worthless or but of little benefit in washing; but it is fast passing away by the introduction of the Dexter Washing Machine. It is a great improvement on the defective and unsatisfactory productions exhibited in all former machines. We invite the most critical examination of its construction and operation either at your own house or at the place where sold. R. H. Long, agent, No. 12 Federal street, Allegheny City.

Go to the Continental, next door below the Post Office, for a dish of oysters.

Not Coming.—Father Hyacinthe, in all probability, will not come to Pittsburgh this year, but notwithstanding that fact Liebler will continue to manufacture at his mammoth establishment that class of trunks, carpet sacks, valises, and other articles for travelers, which have heretofore gained for his house such a widespread popularity. An immense and varied assortment is now on hand at the warerooms, 104 Wood street.

Remember the Continental, Fifth avenue, below the Post Office, when you are hungry.

A Good Article.—A really good cigar to a smoker is a delicious luxury, just as a bad one is an inexpressible misery. Smokers appreciate this fact and are always anxious to get a good article, which accounts for the immense wholesale and retail trade enjoyed by Megraw, No. 45 Hand street. He never keeps on hand anything but what he can recommend, and for that reason dererves all the patronage he gets.

Everybody should patronize the Continental, below the Post Office, Fifth avenue.

Variety.—Lace goods, fancy dress goods, plain and fancy trimmings, and everything in that line, will be found in endless variety at W. W. Moorhead's, No. 81 Market street. The stock is always fresh, and everything purchased at this establishment may be relied upon either for quality, price or style. Ladies cannot do better, in making their purcases, than to stop at 81 Market street.

There is hardly anything you can ask for in the line of eatables which cannot be obtained at the Continental, Fifth avenue.

Burns' Restaurant.—For a good square meal, neatly prepared and properly set up, go to Burns' Restaurant, corner of Smithfield street and Sixth avenue. There is no place in the city where the wants of a hungry man can be more satisfactorily supplied. A specialty is made of oysters, which are received fresh every day, and served in the best style of the culinary art.

Business men can save money by saving time, by dropping into the Continental for lunch or dinner, as they go to the Postoffice.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.

Fatal Result of the Hoffman-Laughran Stabbing Affray—The Hoffmans Arrested—Coroner's Inquest.

The stabbing affray which occurred on the seventh inst., at 445 Penn street, in which Thomas Laughran was wounded, as was alleged, by Stephen and Nicholas Hoffman, has at length proved fatal, adding one more to the long list of homicides which have occurred in this county within a few months past. The particulars of the affray having been previously published in the Gazette, it is unnecessary to go into the details again. At the time mentioned above the Hoffmans opened a saloon, and that being the opening night there was a large crowd of persons present. During the evening a fight ensued, when the lights were turned off and the fight continued in the dark, during which time Laughran, in addition to being severely beaten, received a wound in the side with a knife, which, as stated, caused his death at seven o'clock yesterday morning. On learning of his death, Chief Hague made information before the Mayor charging Hoffmans with the murder, and they were arrested and committed to jail. Coroner Clawson empannelled a jury, and after swearing them adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock P. M., Monday next, and in the meantime Dr. Daly will make a post mortem examination of the body.

Petroleum Items.

The Titusville Herald of the 21st has has the following:

The new well on the Shaw farm, Lower Cherry Run, is now yielding five barrels daily.

About the 30th of last month a new well was struck on the Curtain Oil Company's tract, Lower Cherry Run. At first it produced only three or four barrels per day, but the product has since steadily increased and now is twelve barrels daily.

A new well was struck a few days ago on the Chicago tract, Upper Cherry Run, immediately east of the Pittsburgh and Cherry Run Oil Company's tract. The production is now about seventy five barrels per day.

The new well on the H. McClintock farm is now yielding forty to fifty barrels daily—an increase of ten to twenty barrels.

Last week a new twenty barrel well was struck on the Hydekooper farm, Holmden run, near Pithole. At present the product is black in color like that of the other wells on the farm, but there are indications that this well will produce some green oil. Day before yesterday there was struck a new eighty barrel green oil well on the C. Clark farm, Upper Cherry run.

A pipe line was recently laid between the producing district on West Hickory creek and White Oak station, on the Oil Creek and Allegheny River Railway, a distance of about four miles. The yield on Upper West Hickory creek is about 225 barrels daily. This is a very fair yield, considering the number of wells that have been completed and the newness of the territory. Several wells on the creek will be tested within the next two weeks.

Extract from a Letter from Santa Croix.

* * * * We had wandered for many hours through tangled forests of Tropical shrubs and trees, some of them emitting a most delicious and invigorating odor, when we suddenly came upon a large and well cultivated plantation, in the centre of which were several buildings. Entering these we found them to be the "press houses," stills, &c., where the sugar cane is crushed for the manufacture of St. Croix Rum. Over 100 Coolies were at work, and the smell from the fermenting vats was very exhilarating and pleasant. We were shown through the entire establishment, and learned that all the Rum here produced was shipped to Messrs. P. H. Drake & Co., New York, to be made into their celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS. The peculiar good effects of this Rum—which is the purest and best in the world—are well known. Not a single case of Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Consumption, or any such disease can be found on this island, (except of invalids come here for their health, and they are almost always cured). Combined with Calisaya Bark, Cascarilla, and other important ingredients, this Rum becomes PLANTATION BITTERS; and surely no finer Tonic and general Family Remedy was ever seen. The combination of these bitters was first discovered here many years ago, and all the Natives swear by PLANTATION BITTERS, and say "there is nothing like it." Judging by the robust health of the witnesses, I am certain their testimony is true.

In Trouble.

The night soiling fraternity are again in a state of excitement. Legal proceedings have been entered against a number of them who persist in conducting the fragrant trade as their fathers did notwithstanding the fact that the City Fathers some time ago in an ordinance expressly voted the ancient method, a relic of the past, not in keeping with the march of improvement in the nineteenth century. They have refused to regulate authority and hence been have plunged into trouble, themselves it appears according to this Alderman Morrow was engaged yesterday in hearing their complaints and endeavoring to elucidate the law, to their excited intelligences with, however, but indifferent success.

There are few departments of medicine which have so frequently engaged the attention of Pharmacians and Physicians as the production of a medicine possessing the potency and efficiency which has been so happily consummated in the CONSTITUTION BITTERS. The general want of success in the production of such a remedy and the treatment of diseases of the Liver and Stomach, has not been because of a deficiency of pathological knowledge of their functions, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections. These desiderata have been gained in the Constitution Bitters, and they can be used by persons with the most delicate stomach with perfect safety, as they do not debilitate the patient, but give strength, and increase the nervous energy.
